Monuments

Airborne

At the mercy of the winds, troops descended by gliders or parachute, landing behind enemy lines and fighting to secure military objectives and advance the cause of freedom in distant lands.

All Airmen

For more than one hundred years, U.S. forces have flown aircraft in defense of this country, first as a part of the Army and then as a separate branch. Other branches now defend the skies as well.

Black Soldiers

The sacrifices of the Tuskegee Airmen and the Buffalo Soldiers stand as a testimony to the power of the American dream to inspire all people to protect and defend it, no matter its history or cost.

China Burma India

Remembering veterans who fought in this World War II theatre generally overlooked by the news of its day, the monument honors service from all branches during the period 1941-1945.

Disabled American

Veterans

The organization reminds all people of the depths of sacrifice offered by the military: "The personal price of war is high. It can last a lifetime."

Donor Recognition

Plaques mounted on the entry gateway recognize the generous contributions of individuals and organizations to the establishment and perpetuation of the Veterans Memorial Garden.

Monuments

Ex-Prisoners of War

In war, both sides take prisoners.

Captured members of the U.S. military have spent time in prison, often receiving inhumane treatment. This monument honors all Prisoners of War.

Korean War

From 1950 to 1953, members of the U.S. military fought at the side of allies from 21 countries, members of the United Nations, to defend the sovereignty of South Korea against North Korea.

Marines

With roots reaching back to their founding by the Continental Congress in 1775, the Marines have fought significant battles in every war, abiding by their motto, "Semper Fidelis."

MIA-POW

Featuring the words of Glenda C. Shuett Drucker, this memorial honors the sacrifices of personnel proclaimed missing in action or prisoner of war. "May peace and tranquility be with you wherever you are."

Military Medical Personnel

Beginning with the Revolutionary War, members of the military have risked themselves to help injured comrades. They are the first to respond to calls for help from the sick and wounded.

Monuments

Military Women

Inscribed "Honoring All Military Women. Proud to have Served," the memorial recognizes contributions that stretch back over 200 years and today count 800,000 women in the armed forces.

Pearl Harbor Survivors Association

On December 7, 1941, the attack by Japan on the U.S. at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, led to the deaths of 2,335 members of the U.S. armed forces. This monument honors their final sacrifice.

Purple Heart Recipients

The oldest American decoration for military merit inspired the design of this memorial to all who have been wounded, suffered maltreatment as a prisoner of war, or died while fighting an enemy.

Silent Death

Modern technology brings with it weapons that may not kill in battle, but may debilitate long after a war has ended. This monument recognizes the continuing sacrifices of U.S. service members.

Special Forces

The Army's Airborne Special Forces Group supports U.S. objectives during general, limited and cold wars. The missions place members at risk. This monument honors their service to the country.

U.S. Coast Guard

Rooted in the Revenue Cutter Service of 1790 and now part of the Department of Homeland Security, the Coast Guard lives by its motto, "Semper Paratus," and is always prepared to protect.

Monuments

U.S. Merchant Marine

In fighting World War II, members of the Merchant Marine, known as the “fourth arm of defense,” suffered the highest death rate of any branch of the service: one in twenty-six.

U.S. Navy Armed Guard

The members of the U.S. Navy commemorated with this monument protected the ships and personnel of America’s merchant fleet carrying people and supplies to battles around the world.

U.S. Navy Seabees

Created by the Navy in World War II, the Seabees excelled at construction, fighting and building on six continents and more than 300 islands during that war. They joined the Navy for good in 1947.

Vietnam Veterans

Wall

The twin black granite panels of this memorial contain the names of the 405 people with Nebraska ties who died in the Vietnam War. The monument stands in the same place as the traveling Wall had stood.

Women Airforce Service Pilots

Nineteen Nebraska women served as civilian service pilots between 1942 and 1944. In 2010, they received Congressional Gold Medals for their World War II service.

World War I

Inscribed with the names of military personnel from Lancaster county, this monument remembers those who gave their lives in the “Great War.” Two million American fought in this war.

Monuments

World War II

The United States fought this war from 1941 to 1945, ending it with the unconditional surrenders of Germany and Japan. The monument includes maps showing the locations of major battles.
